FOR CAMPERS & PARENTS

- Campers are asked to attend all classes. If you have a schedule conflict, please contact the camp staff prior to August 22.
- Please, be punctual. Plan to arrive 10 min prior to the beginning of the morning session to register and pick up your name tag.
- Please, take care of your instrument. Always remember to bring your bow, rosin, rockstop (for cellists and double-bassists).
- Campers will receive their assigned music pieces for group classes and string ensemble a few days before the first day of the camp. Please, make sure you look at your music and listen to the pieces (if possible).
- Every camper will receive 2 comp tickets for the Sunday, August 22 Festival Concert. Attendance is not mandatory, but strongly encouraged!
- All the artwork created during this camp will be displayed at the Macrostie Art Center galleries at the Reif. You will be informed about the exhibition dates.
- For the Monday Pre-Text class, please bring a copy of one page from your favorite book. (simple text and illustrations are fine too!)

WORKSHOPS FOR PARENTS

- Wednesday, August 25, 5.30 pm

"Effective Practicing - a guide to developing healthy habits and efficient practice strategies"

- Thursday, August 26, 5.30 pm

"Nurtured by love by Shinichi Suzuki - Every Child Has Potential"

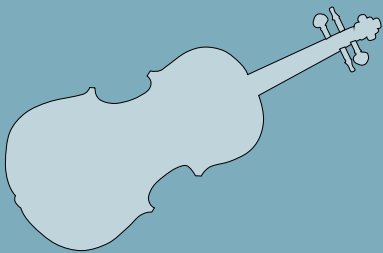

If you would like to attend any of the workshops, please sign up by contacting Magdalena Sas at magewa.sas@gmail.com BY FRIDAY, AUGUST 20

Minimum 8 attendees required for each workshop to be held.

"Music is the universal language of mankind."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Thank you for joining our Music Camp! We are looking forward to many musical adventures together!
